Express promises or warranties agreed by the parties

Liens, security interests and release arrangements

Additional agreed terms

Included motor price, if separately priced

Trailer included? Separate price and paperwork

The seller agrees to transfer the described item to the buyer on the stated payment and delivery terms. The parties must separately complete any required title, registration, disclosure or lien-release process.

The condition and defects recorded here are the parties' description of the item. This document does not disclaim a warranty or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, cancel an express promise or excuse fraud or misrepresentation.

The seller identifies the disclosed liens and title restrictions below. No statement in this record confirms that a lien has been paid, that an agency has transferred title or that a third party has consented.

4. Signatures

Read the full document and the execution notes before signing. A signature records the stated agreement; it does not complete an agency transfer. Add signature pages for every additional owner whose signature is required.

Agency checklist and sources

Alaska distinguishes boat registration from title requirements; a bill can support registration but does not automatically transfer a titled vessel.

The reviewed agency source does not establish a universal notary or witness rule for a separate private-sale bill. Title, application, special-ownership and other documents can have their own execution requirements.

Boats over 24 feet that are not federally documented have a different title rule from shorter boats.

Use the assigned title or required origin evidence for the applicable route.

A registration-only sale record is not a universal title substitute.
