Trailer included? Separate price and paperwork

The seller agrees to transfer the described item to the buyer on the stated payment and delivery terms. The parties must separately complete any required title, registration, disclosure or lien-release process.

The condition and defects recorded here are the parties' description of the item. This document does not disclaim a warranty or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, cancel an express promise or excuse fraud or misrepresentation.

The seller identifies the disclosed liens and title restrictions below. No statement in this record confirms that a lien has been paid, that an agency has transferred title or that a third party has consented.

4. Signatures

Read the full document and the execution notes before signing. A signature records the stated agreement; it does not complete an agency transfer. Add signature pages for every additional owner whose signature is required.

Agency checklist and sources

Kentucky requires its title or accepted non-title-state evidence for a boat transfer. A non-title-state transfer uses the registration and a bill notarized for both parties.

Kentucky's non-title-state transfer route requires a bill notarized for both buyer and seller. Use the official transfer documents for a titled boat.

The application's notary block is separate from the bill's execution requirement.

Outboard motor treatment is different from the boat's ownership record.

Match the prior registration and seller to the parties in the bill.
