Liens, security interests and release arrangements

Additional agreed terms

The seller agrees to transfer the described item to the buyer on the stated payment and delivery terms. The parties must separately complete any required title, registration, disclosure or lien-release process.

The condition and defects recorded here are the parties' description of the item. This document does not disclaim a warranty or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, cancel an express promise or excuse fraud or misrepresentation.

The seller identifies the disclosed liens and title restrictions below. No statement in this record confirms that a lien has been paid, that an agency has transferred title or that a third party has consented.

4. Signatures

Read the full document and the execution notes before signing. A signature records the stated agreement; it does not complete an agency transfer. Add signature pages for every additional owner whose signature is required.

Agency checklist and sources

Indiana accepts a bill as primary ownership evidence only in the specified non-titled, legacy or other listed situations; it is not a universal replacement for a title.

Indiana BMV expressly states that a bill of sale does not require notarization or a perjury statement.

Indiana BMV expressly says the bill does not need notarization or a perjury statement.

A bill used as ownership evidence must identify the purchaser, vehicle and seller as described by BMV.

An incorrect price or sale date already written on a title needs the prescribed correction process.
