The seller agrees to transfer the described item to the buyer on the stated payment and delivery terms. The parties must separately complete any required title, registration, disclosure or lien-release process.

The condition and defects recorded here are the parties' description of the item. This document does not disclaim a warranty or remedy that cannot lawfully be excluded, cancel an express promise or excuse fraud or misrepresentation.

The seller identifies the disclosed liens and title restrictions below. No statement in this record confirms that a lien has been paid, that an agency has transferred title or that a third party has consented.

Agency checklist and sources

Wyoming's current statute requires the owner's title assignment to be acknowledged before a notarial officer. Special bank-held-title cases use the specified bill and delivery procedure.

The reviewed agency source does not establish a universal notary or witness rule for a separate private-sale bill. Title, application, special-ownership and other documents can have their own execution requirements.

Do not apply the bank-held-title exception to every sale.

The published statute includes amendments effective July 2027; those future provisions are not treated here as current.

A sale record does not itself satisfy the requirement to deliver an assigned ownership document.
